ASTIGMATISM.

What it is, and How Corrected.

Adaptation or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30 and 2 to 6. 302 S. Elm St.

52ND ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Of Greensboro Female College Closed Last Night.

The fifty-second annual commencement of Greensboro Female College came to a close last night. The occasion was the annual concert, that feature of the commencement which always draws the largest crowd—such a crowd in fact that in late years it has become necessary to issue tickets, without one of which no one can gain admittance. Exactly enough tickets are issued to comfortably fill the college chapel where the concert is given, and last night it looked as though every one who had secured a ticket used it, for every seat was taken.

At 8:30 o'clock Rev. Dr. Frank H. Wood, presiding elder of the Greensboro district, led the large audience in prayer and the final concert for the session of '98-'99 began. The following program was rendered:

PROGRAMME.
Polacca brilliant—Weber—Misses Vann, Lyon, Wharton and Morris.
Delsarte drill—The May—Misses Nelson, Farrow, Hamilton, Gwyn, Beard, Moore, Leak and Shepard.
Overture to Rienzi—Wagner—Misses Troy, Forbes, Wagg and Bowden.
Spring's Awakening—Buck—Miss Lizzie Wynne.

Midsummer Night's Dream—Nocturne and March—Mendelssohn—Misses Lizzie and Nora Balsley.
Dances Hongroises—Brahms—Misses Booker, Parham, Patrick, Moore, Lenore—Trotter—Miss Annie Shepard.

Waltz—Raff—Miss Nora Balsley.
Crossing the Bar—Buck—Miss Besie Miller.
Melody—Mason, Chromatic Waltz—Godard—Miss K. Gwyn.
The Skylark—Hutton—Miss Mabelle Andrews.

Polonaise Militar—Chopin, Whispering Wind—Wollenhaupt—Miss Ethel Blalock.

Overture to Leonore—Beethoven—Misses Blalock, Nora Balsley, Lizzie Balsley and Gwyn.

Chorus—The Curfew—Murray, May Song—Kieserling.

Pantomime—A Romance of the Ganges—Elizabeth Browning—Misses Bowden, Gibbs, Lyon, Nelson, Parker, Ayers and Patrick.
Announcements.
Every young lady who had a place on the excellent programme performed her part with credit to herself and her instructor and the latter is a credit to the institution. The ease, grace and composure of the students evinced the excellent instruction of Prof. J. W. Parker.

The rendition of "The Skylark" by Miss Mabelle Andrews, of this city, was faultless and the song especially beautiful. Miss Andrews possesses a beautiful, sweet and cultured soprano voice and when she had finished singing received a hearty and continued applause. The audience regretted that the length of the program was such that she could not respond to the encore.

CHANGING THE POSITIONS.

Employees of Atlantic & Yadkin Being Provided For.

The Southern today began making the changes in the positions of employees of the Atlantic & Yadkin. It is understood that nearly all the employees, both in the offices and on the road, will be assigned to positions, either on the Southern or the Atlantic Coast Line. The Atlantic & Yadkin dispatcher's office was moved today to the Southern dispatcher's office and Mr. Weatherpoon, chief dispatcher on the A. & Y. is given a position with the Southern. Mr. Gilmer will remain for the present in the old office.

The list of changes has not yet been completed, though it is understood that Captains Dodson and McLaughlin will conduct the two passenger trains on the A. & Y., and Capt. Pemberton will head Campbell transferred to the Atlantic Coast Line. Two or three freight conductors and several brakemen, flagmen, and other employees, will be given positions on the Southern. The employees in the Atlantic & Yadkin freight offices will be retained at the old depot.

SEPARATE CARS FOR THE RACES.

The Jim Crow Car Law Went Into Effect Today.

The Jim Crow car law, passed by the late North Carolina legislature, went into effect today, according to the recent ruling of the Railroad Commission. All trains passing through Greensboro, with the exception of through trains and vestibules, which escape the operation of the law by reason of the fact that they do not cater to local traffic, have been provided with separate accommodations for the races.

Queen Quality.

TILLY'S MURDER AVENGED

By Smith and His Intrepid Americans.

ONLY A FEW MORE TROOPS

Are Wanted by Otis—They Will be Called For Early by the War Department.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, June 1.—The insurgents occupied the lines around San Fernando yesterday. This morning they attacked the outposts of the Fifty-first Iowa, wounding two. Col. French took the rest of the Twenty-second Infantry to Candaba yesterday, the Filipinos having appeared in considerable force in that vicinity. Capt. Wrenn, of the Seventeenth Infantry, has completed the enlistment of a hundred Macabebes to act as scouts. The Macabebes in the city of Pampango, who were always loyal to Spain, are now loyal Americans. The inhabitants, who are continually fighting the Togolos, now offer a regiment of troops to the Americans.

In accordance with the reorganization of troops, Lawton, with the First division, commands the Manila defenses and the lines from Calocan to Pasay. McArthur commands north of Lawton's lines, with headquarters at San Fernando.

BUT FEW TROOPS WANTED.
Washington, June 1.—Otis has replied to the inquiry of the war department for the number of troops wanted. He doesn't want many. An early call will be made for as many as are required.

TILLY'S MURDER AVENGED.

Washington, June 1.—Otis cables that Smith reports from the Island of Negros that he has punished the insurgents who murdered Tilly, and that the eastern coast of the island is now under the American flag, the inhabitants asking protection against robber bands. The bands were pursued to the mountains by United States naval troops and severely punished.

THE MEDIATION SCHEME

Proposed by the Americans Adopted by the Peace Conference.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

The Hague, June 1.—The American mediation scheme was unanimously adopted yesterday by the peace conference. The first commission, by a vote of 18 to 3, adopted a resolution proposed by Italy and Austria prophesying the use of flattened bullets, etc. Also to use explosive balloons and explosive bullets. Great Britain was in the minority. Agreement was found impossible as to all important proposals. The convention is growing in work. The first committee is doomed a failure.

NEW SPANISH MINISTER

To Be Formally Received by the Secretary of State Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 1.—The Spanish minister, the Duke D'Arcos, will probably be received formally by the secretary of state today. The secretary will arrange for his presentation to the president tomorrow. The Spanish credentials will be presented today.

JAPAN PREPARES FOR WAR.

She Thinks that a Clash With Russia Is Unavoidable.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Victoria, B. C., June 1.—A Pekin correspondent writes that Japan is quietly preparing for war, as she did four years ago, taking deliberate measures in strengthening all coast defenses. War with Russia in the near future is thought to be unavoidable.

Impure Ice Cream.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Eastport, L. I., June 1.—About fifty persons are ill here from eating impure ice cream. All will live, but some are seriously ill. The cream was served at a church festival. Local physicians worked all night.

A Fatal Duel.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Buda Pest, June 1.—A fatal duel with pistols was fought yesterday at Klansenburg between Prof. Oboischall and Herr Putzky. The latter was shot dead. The quarrel was caused by a jesting remark.

An American Assaulted.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Johannesburg, June 1.—Thomas Regan, an American, was assaulted by a leading financier named Ereckstein here today at the Standard Bank by being struck in the face with a whip.

Cotton.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, June 1.—Cotton bids, June 88, 9; July and August 92, 3; September 89, 90.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU HIGH POINT, N. C., June 1.

Several High Pointers attended G. F. commencement at Greensboro yesterday.

The High Point Furniture Company has shut down for the week, owing to the scarcity of water, which necessitated digging another well. Other improvements will also be made.

Miss Lillie Morable, of Birmingham, Ala., who has been visiting for some time in Virginia, arrived here last night to spend awhile with her father, Mr. D. T. Morable, on North Main street.

Aroh Winslow, clerk at the New York Cash Store, is indisposed this week.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor, of Hamilton, is visiting the families of Messrs. J. B. and T. Best.

Miss Addie Allsbrook, of Richmond, is in the city on a visit to the family of Mr. Thos. Best.

Work on Mr. R. L. Pickett's residence on Steele street is being pushed rapidly, and the house is beginning to assume an imposing shape. When completed it will be one of the nicest dwellings in High Point.

D. T. Marble returned home last night.

T. F. Wrenn, of the Catawba Furniture Company, of Lenoir, is in the city on business.

Photographer Jones has just finished some nice work for Mr. Brokaw, of Fairview Lodge, which does him credit.

Dr. J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College, passed through yesterday enroute to Troy, where he delivers an address before the school at that place.

Albert Chandler is all out of sorts this week. Tuesday night he took his bicycle to the repair shop of Montgomery & Farley's and left it standing on the outside, while he went inside on business. When he returned he found his wheel gone—a suspicious looking character who was standing near-by, is supposed to have made away with it. If you see a stranger who wants to sell a "Progress" wheel real cheap, let it be known.

Vernon Moteneger, who works for W. P. Pickett & Co., tobacco manufacturers, had the misfortune to cut off two of his fingers on his right hand Tuesday night about dark. The factory had shut down for the evening but it seems that the boy lingered behind to play with the line cutter which caused the accident. Dr. Stanton stuck the fingers back in their places and dressed the wound satisfactorily.

A little negro boy was up before Mayor Cox last night for stealing a ride on the train. He failed to have the cash with which to pay the fine in his trousers, so he was sent to the county roads.

CYCLONE IN REIDSVILLE.

Pavilion at Race Track Unroofed and Mr. Fletcher Jones Injured.

A telephone message from Reidsville says that a severe cyclone passed that city late yesterday afternoon and badly damaged some property near there. The Reidsville Concert Band was practicing in the pavilion at the race track when the violent wind came up. The pavilion was unroofed, the top falling through and slightly injuring some of the members of the band. Mr. Fletcher Jones, one of the band boys, was right badly hurt.

Nearly All Gone.

Nearly all the young ladies of the Greensboro Female College left the city today, some of them going in all directions to their homes in all parts of the state. Including those who left today, no less than five hundred college girls have left Greensboro within the past two weeks. They will be much missed until the colleges open again when it is hoped the majority of them and many new ones will return. A pleasant vacation to each and every one of them.

Fire at New York.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, June 1.—Scheer's cleaning and dyeing works on Third avenue were burned this morning. The flames were soon extinguished.

Governor Jones a Candidate.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Little Rock, June 1.—Governor Jones has announced himself a candidate for the United States senate in the seat now filled by Senator Berry.

Strike Settled.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Buffalo, June 1.—The freight haulers' strike will probably end today.

A general strike of the plumbers in Norfolk, Va., went into effect this morning.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

Kansas City With Her Big Auditorium Wants Both of Them.

RALEIGH'S FEDERAL PRISONERS

Continue to Complain to The Department of Justice—Investigation to Be Made.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., June 1.—St. Louis, it is said, will probably not be a bidder for either of the two national conventions next year. An international fair is to be held there in 1900 for the purpose of commemorating the Louisiana purchase, and St. Louis will not need the advertisement of its resources, and development which would come from one of the big conventions.

Kansas City, Missouri, however, is likely to be a bidder for one of the national conventions, probably both. On account of the location of the city in one of the staunchest democratic states of the southwest, if Kansas City secures either of the two conventions, it is more likely to be the democratic, than the republican, although four years ago, the republican convention went to St. Louis, and the democratic to Chicago.

The people of Kansas City are already giving the subject their attention, and they have just completed a handsome and commodious auditorium, which is said to be the largest in the United States, with the express purpose of asking for the conventions next year. San Francisco would like to get one of the national conventions, and if she gets either, it would probably be the republican. On account of the great distance from the east, the difference in time, which would operate against afternoon papers in this section, and the expense of sending delegates from the eastern states, she is likely to be disappointed. San Francisco will have the support in the national committee of California and other Pacific states, besides perhaps some scattering support. Chicago will bid for both conventions, and hopes as usual to get one. Other cities which will probably have claims to present to the two national committees are New York City, Washington, Indianapolis, St. Paul, and possibly, Omaha.

Complaints as to the treatment of the federal prisoners at the North Carolina state penitentiary, at Raleigh, continue to be received at the department of justice. It is likely that the department will institute an investigation into these complaints. At the department of justice it was stated yesterday morning in response to inquiries that nothing will be made public as to these investigations. The reasons for this decision is on account of the effect it might have upon other federal prisoners confined in other state penitentiaries. The attorney general, it is said, is making a personal investigation quietly into the charges which have been received. When he was seen yesterday he stated that he could not make anything public connected with the pending charges, as it was absolutely necessary to keep all information as to what is done from becoming known to other federal prisoners, in other institutions, as they are watching the investigation into the charges of those confined at Raleigh, and if it turns out favorable to the prisoners, it might lead the former to rebel against the prison authority in the places where they are confined.

On July 10th, the Interstate Commerce Commission will grant a hearing which is of importance to railroads east of the Mississippi, and south of the Ohio river. The arguments will be in the case of the complaints filed by the Merchants Association of Wilmington, North Carolina, that the city is discriminated against in rates on food products received from the west. It is charged that Wilmington has to pay nearly double on products shipped to that city, as compared to the rates paid at Norfolk, Va.

It is said that in eastern North Carolina thousands of bushels of strawberries are rotting in the fields because of damage by rain and hail. They have been damaged to such an extent that if pulled they would bring hardly anything to the producer. It is said further that the season has been adverse to the growers of all sorts of truck crops.

Postmaster Mullen, of Charlotte, North Carolina, who was in Washington last week visiting friends, has returned to his home. Postmaster Jenkins, of Gastonia, was also here last week and has returned.

John S. Smith, of this city, was married this week to Miss Lizzie Crump, of Lenoir, North Carolina, the young lady coming to Washington to be married. The couple, it is understood, will reside in this city.

Walter Preston has been visiting friends and relatives in Alexandria and Washington cities.

W. T. Delmer and James Newson have been appointed storekeepers gaugers in Raleigh internal revenue district.

BOARDING HUNG JURIES.

Guilford's Register of Deeds Doesn't Like It.

Guilford's genial register of deeds Mr. A. G. Kirkman has a bad opinion of hung juries and the jury men at the present term of court being fond of disagreeing, the register's brow has been much wrinkled of late. Up to yesterday noon the board of hung juries had cost the county no less than $29 and the jury in the case of Clapp vs. Insurance Company being hung at that hour the register was afraid they would dine again at the county's expense, but Judge Timberlake also has a dislike for hung juries, and failed to order dinner for this particular one until 3 o'clock, when they agreed.

Whether or not the amount expended for rations is deducted from the pay of the jury men, the reverend register does not know, and should he discover that it is not, he will no doubt wax warmer.

MARCHAND ARRIVES.

And Is Vociferously Cheered by the Paris Populace.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, June 1.—Marchand arrived this morning. As he alighted from a special train he was vociferously cheered by a crowd of fifty thousand persons. None of the ministers of station received him, but the carriage which he entered was guarded to prevent being overwhelmed by the rush of admirers who covered the vehicle with flowers, and shouted, "Vive Marchand!" He repeatedly bowed his acknowledgments to the multitudes.

AN INCIDENT

Which Never Occurred Before in Pennsylvania.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Altoona, Penn., June 1.—Peter Myers, of Somerset, who shot Constable Lanhart when he tried to arrest Myers for the murder of Michael Kearney, was convicted in both cases today. For the first time in the history of the state the sentence of death for two murders upon one person will be passed by a Pennsylvania court.

Easy to Put on—Easy to Take off

There's "a something" about our clothes to measure that you don't find in others—they slip on easy, they slip off easy—and most important, they fit. Let us make your next suit—put it on, walk down street with it, people will look after you and admire it. Tell your friends that you paid only $15 or $20 for it and they won't believe it. Don't seem credible. Tell them it cost anywhere from $25 to $40—they'll believe that, while your pocketbook has at least $10 the best of it. Tell your friends about our famous $3 trousers and our wonderful $15 Serge Suits to order.

List Your City Taxes.

This is to notify all persons that I will attend at the mayor's office, at 112 North Elm street, during the month of June for the purpose of listing city taxes. Agents, administrators, trustees and all persons holding property in their own right or by virtue of their agency or otherwise are hereby notified to come forward and list the same, as a failure so to do will subject them to a double tax.

John S. Mjehaux, City Clerk.

P. S.—At the same time and place the list-takers and assessors for Morehead and Gilmer townships will attend for the purpose of assessing and listing property for state and county taxes in said townships. ml7-3w

Yale's new president, Professor Hadley, will be inaugurated in October.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "faux" little pills for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard Gardner.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

SMART AT SPELLING.

A LESSON IN ORTHOGRAPHY THAT WAS DEARLY BOUGHT.

How a Couple of Shrewd Sharps won Thousands of Dollars by Working the Dictionary For Game Until They Were Brought to Grief.

"How do you spell 'choir'?" asked a man in the bookstore.

"What do you mean—paper or music?" inquired a smart young man who poses as an authority on all topics.

"Music, singing, of course," replied the man in search of orthographical information.

"Ch-o-i-r," responded the smart young man decisively.

"Q-u-i-r-e," chimed in a red-bearded man who was busy looking at some books.

"You are referring to paper," said the smart young man, looking sadly at the interrupter. "We were speaking about music."

"I mean music, too," said the red-bearded man calmly. "Q-u-i-r-e, to sing in concert."

The smart young man's expression changed from sadness to contempt. "You had better consult your dictionary," he said with a sneer.

"Never mind," retorted the red-bearded man. "My way of spelling may be a little old fashioned, but you will find it correct according to Webster."

You will also find it correct according to the Century Dictionary, and if I am not mistaken it is likewise given in the Standard. Your way is all right too."

The smart young man gave a sniff of scorn. "Josh Billings and you should have collaborated on a phonetic spelling book."

"Look here," said the red-bearded man. "I'll bet you $3 that Webster's latest spells it 'q-u-i-r-e.'"

"Make it $5," said the smart young man, pulling out a roll.

"No! I don't want to rob you. Get the dictionary."

The money was put up and Webster's International brought out. There it was, "q-u-i-r-e, to sing in concert."

"I didn't mean a verb," said the smart young man, growing white around the eyes. "Where is the noun?"

They found that, too, although it was marked obsolete. Then the smart young man wilted.

"I won't take your money," said the red-bearded man, handing back the bill. "My name is Bell, George T. Bell. I have had educational advantages, which you probably never received, and I spent several months learning the different ways to spell that word. Several years ago I was on the secret service."

My partner and I had been on the trail of a pair of sharpers who had a repertoire of 'con' games that would have made the ordinary bunco man look sick. They were men of far more than ordinary intelligence and had the manners of cultured men of the world. The way we happened to get them was a pure accident.

"My partner and I were going down from St. Louis on a Mississippi river packet. There were about 20 of us in the smoking room talking and trying to pass the time comfortably. Just as a bill came in the hand of conversation a young man seated at a table writing some letters looked up with a troubled air and said, 'Could any of you gentlemen tell me how to spell "choir"?' I am a little puzzled over it."

"What kind of a one do you mean?" asked several.

"Choir, to sing in concert," chirped the young man, wrinkling his brow as if to recall the proper orthography.

"Ch-o-i-r," said a scholarly looking man with glasses on.

"Q-u-i-r-e," sang out a big, well-fed old man off in the corner.

"Ch-o-i-r," repeated the first man with some emphasis. "I thought every fool knew that."

"That's all right," said the old man off in the corner. "Money talks. I'll bet you $30 that Webster spells it 'q-u-i-r-e' too."

"I'll raise you 50," said the first man, who was a cotton buyer at Memphis.

"All right," said the big old man coolly. Then the others joined in and bet him a small sum. They put up about $500. Then they got the dictionary, and, as just now, the man who bet on 'q-u-i-r-e' won.

"My partner and I waited till the money had changed hands, and then I said, 'Come on, St.'"

"I walked up to the young man and said: 'Come with me; I want you. I'll show you how to spell choir. Sit colored the big old man and we walked them down below. You never saw two fellows look quite so cheap. They had tricked but they got four years and a half apiece. That is one spelling school I have attended that not every man goes to. That game is one which will catch nine educated men out of ten. You are all right, but you may still have something to learn."

Then the smart young man offered the usual invitation in payment for the information.—Washington Post.

Quite Emersonian.
Cripple Creek is great on etiquette. A man out there met a little girl with whose family he is very intimate and said:

"Hello, Edith! How are you?"
The little miss drew herself up and replied:

"I'm very well, but I ain't no telephone."—Boston Globe.

THE GREAT WAR PLAY.

Capt. Dick Will be Presented at the Academy Tonight.

Tonight at the Academy of Music an opportunity will be given the Greensboro public to witness "Captain Dick" the entertainment which has met with such phenomenal success in all of the other principal towns of the state. The cast is made up of local talent whose names will be found further down. As the entertainment is given under the auspices, and for the benefit of Eagle Hose Co. No. 7, the success financially is not to be doubted, and as the final rehearsal last night assures a splendid and unusually smooth performance. It is confidently thought that "Captain Dick" can already be set down as a huge success. A special feature of the entertainment will be the music by the orchestra, incidentally and between the acts. A brass band of picked musicians to head the troops in full uniform as they appear in the "grand march off" with view of the capital at Washington, D. C., clever up-to-date specialties, special scenery, magnificent costumes and startling battle effects.

Messrs. Bertram and Willard, who so pleased the people here last season as "Mr. and Mrs. Jedediah Bobbins" in the "Singing Skule," will play two leading parts, and the following ladies and gentlemen will be seen in the cast: Messrs. Geo. W. Pritchett, B. S. Phillips, Bassett Willard, J. M. Rosenblatt, J. A. Logan, Eugene Bertram, J. T. Rees, Geo. P. Phillips, Joe Tate, J. M. Phillips, J. J. Smith, A. K. Venable, W. R. Pleasants, Chas. J. Limbe and Misses Marie Wolfe, Su to Stone, Hallie Hall, Jaunita Cooper and Mr. Lyndon Hall.

Music will be furnished by Miss Lizzie Crowder, Messrs. Claude Elam, Franz Liverson, Ney Forbis and Jesse Alderman of the Greensboro orchestra.

New styles ladies' neckwear just received at Kaufmann's, under the Benbow.
